He later served in the Army and, upon returning to civilian life, William Wallace Johnstone was a prolific American author, mostly of western, horror and survivalist novels. Left out to dry by their own government, history repeats itself as Americans are once again besieged within those hallowed walls and forced to take a stand against the might of the ruthless reconquistadors. Shelve Absaroka Ambush. More to the point, the novel recounts "the way to dusty death" of a traditional upper-class Southern family. Buddy rated it really liked it Aug 29,
