The way to his heart is a latte and fan art. There are murders, attacks from the Summer Court, and lots of small mysteries. The Summer Court is still trying to bring down the show, and they seem to have their sights set on Vivienne in particular. The pacing is quite off in this one. Whispers of magic fuel Josie's desire to uncover the truth, but an ordinary girl by her friends Kingston - a feisty stage magician whose magic is quickly stealing her heart - and his sarcastic assistant Melody, Vivienne finds herself racing against the clock to discover the culprit behind a series of deaths that should be impossible. She is remembering who she once was and how she was tricked and lied to.
