I could not help feeling that I was listening to a salesman rather than someone passing on information from "the Most High" [as Spirit calls himself]. William appears to be more a salesman than anything. Then you may be able to listen well and feel Jesus, God and The Universe because at the end of the day it is your own individual saying and doing that will determine your fate and how close you get to God.

We tend to rationalize our decisions afterwards, but we seldom actually make our decisions that way. Frankly, I was so desperate to be healed that I ignored a lot of obvious warning signs combined with the manipulation that goes on. I can tell you that I did not have faith when I arrived at the Casa but from both personal and antidotal experience came to know that things go on there that I could not believe that are in the realm of what we do not know.

The Church unit herself to this mystery in a special way in the liturgical season of Pentecost.
