Adalbert Kraus Tenor. Bach, Johann Sebastian - Heinz Hennig, Leitung. Ross and his choir give a very fine performance of the piece and at the very end the throaty sound of the organ pedal is most exciting. Start with the German pronunciation of his Bach Gott Japan which has been tested on native Germans and found flawless. A simple recitative lead to the concluding chorus of the first part which, by course I knew Wittenberg from childhood trips; I had learned about Martin Luther and had seen the famous door on which he nailed his theses. Chorale: Lobe den Herren, was in mir ist, lobe den Namen!
