Tu me l'apprends! Otherwise, they might be simply social groups, or they might, especially in the troubles of the late Republic, be involved in political agitation.

In any event, our ability to write a history of Italian religions should be sign

The cities of both East and West came to find themselves with groups living in tense proximity with Greeks and Romans: first there came groups of Jews, Egyptians, and Syrians, identified on the basis of their ethnicity; later, groups of Christians and others, identifying themselves more specifically by their religious commitments.
