When a soul incarnates on your planet, it is an indication that the soul is ready for major spiritual expansion. But this spiritual knowledge spoken of in the text, is what God is the author of, and none else: he reveals it, and flesh and blood reveals it not.

Every person on the planet is being impulsed with this awareness, which is seen. I wonder what has been getting in your way. Their discovery of spiritual concepts usually remains mental and theoretical. Venturing deep into your consciousness to seek out these overwhelmed parts, and consciously experience what you have been actively avoiding for decades may feel a bit scary, and it is difficult to do without the compassionate presence and supportive guidance of an experienced self discovery coach. The purpose of this phenomenon is to bring attention to the whole concept of it. If you see it in your mind, you will hold it in your hand.
