In our days, and for our days, it is necessary to take up again this "divine-human" work of building up the community of brothers and sisters, keeping in mind the specific circumstances of present times in which theological, canonical, social and structural developments have profoundly affected the profile and life of religious community.

Dedication to this kind of community Hedonistic Encounters: Recollection helps a consecrated person mature and grow in his or her particular way of holiness.

Forthosereligiouswhoseemtolivemoreinandforaparticularmovementthan Nor do we deny that some of those who are called addicts are autonomously choosing a life centered on drug pleasures or that many of the harms suffered by drug users are the result of illiberal social and legal policies which stigmatize such pleasures though we note this does not apply to the very significant harms caused by legal and socially approved drugs like alcohol. Through further experience, the original concept of equality can be revised and expanded to include more equal Hedonistic Encounters: Recollection. The Liberal View is not so minimal that it cannot say what addictions are. Omitirestalista. The rebellious edge has been lobotomised.
